

SUPPLEMENTAL PROBATE COURT RULE 410

Within forty-five (45) days from the date of service of the summons, Supplemental Probate Court Rule 410 requires you and the opposing party to comply with certain mandatory self-disclosure and provide copies of the following documents:

1. Your federal and state income tax returns and schedules for the past three (3) years and any non-public, limited partnership and privately held corporate returns for any entity in which either party has an interest together with all supporting documentation for tax returns, including but not limited to w-2's, 1099's, K-1, Schedules C and E;
2. Statements for the past three (3) years for all bank accounts held in the name of either party individually or jointly, or in the name of another person for the benefit of either party, or held by either party for the benefit of your minor child(ren);
3. Your four (4) most recent pay stubs from each employer for whom you have worked;
4. Documentation regarding the cost and nature of health insurance coverage available to you for the benefit of you or your family;
5. Your statements for the past three (3) years for any securities, stocks, bonds, notes or obligations, certificates of deposit owned or held by either party or held by either party for the benefit of your minor child (ren), 401K statements, IRA statements, and pension plan statements for all accounts listed on your financial statement;
6. Any loan or mortgage applications made, prepared or submitted by either party within the last three (3) years prior to the filing of the complaint; and
7. Copies of any financial statement and/or statement of assets and liabilities prepared by either party within the last three (3) years prior to the filing of the complaint.

Rule 410(a)(2) further requires you and the opposing party to supplement all disclosures as material changes occur during your case. Neither party is permitted to file any discovery motions prior to making his or her own initial self-disclosure.
